Why Major in Mathematics at Southern?

Our graduates with teaching certification have a 100 percent placement rate in secondary education positions.

All graduates from the Math Department who seek to further their education gain admission to graduate school.

With a low student-to-professor ratio in upper division mathematics courses, students find a more individualized learning environment.

Professors have experience integrating faith and learning.

Students can work as tutors, or readers and research assistants for professors.

Majors Offered:

Bachelor of Arts
Mathematics
Mathematics (teaching licensure 6-12)

Bachelor of Science
